

INTERNATIONAL ADVANCED STANDING

Advanced Standing Option for Admission

The University of Louisville School of Dentistry offers an Advanced Standing admission option into the DMD program for selected individuals who have received a dental degree from an institution outside the United States or Canada. The program will be customized for each admitted student and will range from two to three years in length.

The total number of students admitted is dependent upon both the school's available resources and on space available in the class. Contact ULSD Student Affairs for more information prior to applying for the program.

Applicants must apply through the ADEA's Centralized Application for Advanced Placement for International Dentist (<https://www.adea.org/home/application-services/internationally-educated-dentists/>) (CAAPID).
